Subject: ExMC/2267/prDA, Agenda Item 6.6 (Any other membership or general matters) -
USNC/IECEX proposal for IECEx Operational Document OD 099, Procedure for IECEX Document Management

Dear Chris:

In response to the Japan, Norway, Russia, and US comments on ExMC/2254/RV for ExMC/2249/DV Revision of IECEx 02, Edition 8.1, the USNC/IECEX respectfully requests an improvement to the IECEx Operational Document OD 099 be considered that would require the Document Owner and Document Control Administrator to complete a thorough editorial review of Documents for Vote prior to circulation for ballot. This action would assist with an efficient balloting process by providing National Committees with a final draft ready for vote and without any confusion regarding the proposed change to the document.

Proposed change to OD 099 will help clarify 6. Definitions and 8. Responsibilities and will offer for consideration a reassignment of the sequence of events: 1.) Document Owner, 2.) Document Approver and 3.) Document Control Administrator.

The changes would not prevent the Document Control Administrator from making final editorial changes before publication, but the expectation would be that more significant editorial and formatting changes would be implemented before the document is provided for vote.

Additionally, the US suggests:

6. Definitions be put in alphabetical order and formatted with sub-clause numbering instead of bullet points; and

15. Document Archiving: Require superseded editions and versions of documents be archived on the IECEx website to provide availability to all members.

1. Purpose

The purpose of this IECEx Operational Document is to define the processes and procedures for the publication and maintenance of IECEx documents and publications according to their designated type or “level”. The details of the levels are explained in Clause 3 and Annex A of this IECEx Operational Document.

This IECEx Operational Document does not provide guidance on the detailed steps, software and procedures that IECEx Committees, Working Groups or other groups may use to prepare, review, discuss or recommend the publication of IECEx documents publications. Where already defined, these aspects are detailed in other IECEx Operational Documents (for example, IECEx Rules of Procedure, IECEx OD 035 and IECEx OD 302).

2. Abbreviations

The following list of terminology and descriptions are provided to assist the application of this IECEx Operational Document:

Table 1 – Abbreviations

Abbreviation	Description	Comment
IEC CAB	IEC Conformity Assessment Board
ExMC	IECEX System Management Committee
ExTAG	IECEX Ex Testing and Assessment Group	reports to the ExMC
ExSFC	IECEX Service Facility Committee	reports to the ExMC
ExMarkCo	IECEX Conformity Mark Committee	reports to the ExMC
ExPCC	IECEX Personnel Certification Committee	reports to the ExMC
ExAG	IECEX Assessment Group	reports to the ExMC
HBR	Harmonized Business Rules
WG	Working Group
OD	Operational Document

3. Levels of IECEx Publications

IECEX publications are divided into the following levels:

- 1) Level I – Rules of Procedure and Operational Documents of the IECEx system. These documents can be revised periodically and are systematically reviewed.
- 2) Level II – Decisions of the IECEx System that are not changed once published as final and typically require no additional systematic content review following approval as a decision taken or endorsed by the ExMC.
- 3) Level III – These are fixed meeting documents that are not changed once published as final and require no additional systematic content review following their acceptance by the supervising Scheme Committee, ExTAG, ExMC or Member Bodies as appropriate to the content.
- 4) Level IV – These are publications that are prepared in response to extraordinary events and need to be published as a matter of urgency so that IECEx Member Bodies, Certification Bodies or Testing Laboratories have a timely reference and guidance on required actions. These will normally be published upon approval by the IECEx Executive Secretary (exercising the authority of Chief Executive Officer provided by IEC CA 01) in consultation with the IECEx Executive. These documents shall be submitted for endorsed at the next ExMC meeting.

4. Main IECEx documents

The following is a list of the main types of IECEx documents:

- 1) IECEx Scheme Rules of Procedure – Operational Rules for the structure, constitution, and organization of the different IECEx schemes.
- 2) IEC Conformity Assessment Systems – Basic Rules (IEC CA 01) – a document prepared and approved by the IEC Conformity Assessment Board (IEC CAB) that establishes Rules that apply generally to all IEC Conformity Assessment Systems of which the IECEx System is one. The HBR is published as IEC CA 01.
- 3) IECEx Supplement to IEC CA 01 – more detailed specific requirements in addition to IEC CA 01 as applied to the IECEx System. The IECEx Supplement to the HBR is published as IECEX 01-S.
- 4) IECEx Operational Documents - are mandatory procedural documents that supplement IECEx Rules of Procedure and provide details on how to comply with IECEx Rules of Procedure.
- 5) Guides – These documents are to provide guidance for a specific activity.
- 6) Forms – A document for recording, storing, or providing information in a predetermined format.

5. IECEx Decisions

These are documents of the following types:

- 1) ExMC Decisions – decided by the ExMC and may be based on recommendations to the ExMC.
- 2) IECEX Executive Decisions – decided by the IECEx Executive in accordance with IECEx OD 002 and may form recommendations to the ExMC, IEC CAB or other groups as appropriate.
- 3) ExTAG Decisions – decided by the ExTAG (typically at the annual ExTAG meeting) and may form recommendations to the ExMC.
- 4) ExTAG Decision Sheets – prepared under the supervision of the ExTAG in order to ensure consistent application of requirements until such consistency can be provided by the relevant IEC Standard or other publication.
NOTE: These may require systematic review.
- 5) ExMC's Committees' Recommendations – submitted to the ExMC by Committees (other than ExTAG) reporting to the ExMC (ExSFC, ExMarkCo, ExPCC and ExAG).
- 6) ExSFC Decision Sheets – prepared under the supervision of the ExSFC in order to ensure consistent application of requirements until such consistency can be provided by the relevant IEC Standard or other publication.
NOTE: These may require systematic review.
- 7) ExPCC Decision Sheets – prepared under the supervision of the ExPCC in order to ensure consistent application of requirements until such consistency can be provided by the relevant IEC Standard or other publication.
NOTE: These may require systematic review.
- 8) ExAG Decisions – decided by the ExAG and may form recommendations to the ExMC.
- 9) Working Group Recommendations – submitted to the relevant Committee(s). These may be endorsed or rejected by the supervising Committee.

6. Definitions

The following terms are used within this document.

- ~~Document Approver – A body or person having the authority to approve the document~~
- Document Owner – A body or person that has authority and responsibility for development, content, and maintenance of a document
- Document Approver – A body or person having the authority to approve the document
- Document Control Administrator - a body or person assigned review and publishing responsibilities for documents
- Effective Date – Date at which a document becomes effective when applicable if different from the publication date. Unless otherwise stated, IECEx publications require implementation from the date of publication and a new Edition or version supersedes all previous Editions or versions. If a transitional period or transitional arrangements apply to a specific document these shall be specified in the document (ideally in the Foreword or Introduction sections as appropriate)
- Template - A document format that serves as a basis for a new document
- History of changes – a brief summary of changes as illustrated in the example below should, according to Document Level, be included in the publication to record the complete history of the publication or document:

Table 2 – Example of publication history table

Date	Brief summary of changes
2015-06-08	Added responsibilities for Secretariat in Clause 8
2016-06-12	Multiple changes as outlined in ExMC/####/R

7. General process for document management

7.1 Software for document management

A currently supported version of Microsoft Word shall be used for the preparation, review and storage of all IECEx publications.

7.2 Identification of document changes

All proposed and agreed changes to a document shall be clearly indicated (by track changes as the preferred method) in a Redline Version (designated as “RLV”) published in addition to the new version.

7.3 Controlled Document Categories

All controlled documents are classified into one of the categories identified in Annex A and shall include the following details as content.

7.3.1 General

The requirements for all Levels of Documents are as follows:

- Working documents still under preparation and consideration shall be clearly marked as draft by use of a DRAFT watermark.
- Documents shall be submitted for approval according to Annex A prior to publishing.
- Invalid or obsolete documents shall be archived and removed from or moved within the IECEx website to prevent unintended use.

- Record of approvals and status changes shall be maintained by the Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~ for all controlled documents.

7.3.2 Level I Documents

Level I documents shall include the following basic elements:

- Title or subject
- Document number
- Issue date (yyyy-mm-dd)
- Effective date (yyyy-mm-dd)
- Revision date (yyyy-mm-dd)
- Scope
- History of changes
- Footer disclaimer as follows:

*This document is controlled and has been released electronically.
Only the version on the IECEX Website is the current document version.*

7.3.3 Level II Documents

Level II documents shall include the following basic elements:

- Title or subject
- Document number
- Issue date (yyyy-mm-dd) or applicable approval or implementation date(s)

7.3.4 Level III Documents

Level III documents shall include the following basic elements:

- Title or subject
- Document number
- Issue date (yyyy-mm-dd)

7.3.5 Level IV Documents

Level IV documents shall include the following basic elements:

- Title or subject
- Document number
- Issue date (yyyy-mm-dd)
- Effective date for implementation (if not on date of publication)
- Who must implement the contents of the document?
- Expiry, withdrawal or scheduled review date (if relevant)

Details of who approved its publication and who was consulted prior to publication

8. Responsibilities

8.1 Document Control Administrator (IECEX Secretariat)

The Document Control Administrator:

- is a role assigned to the IECEX Secretariat unless otherwise decided by the ExMC.

- reviews submitted document for any inconsistencies and verifies the submitted document is ready for ballot before circulating as a Document for Vote.

NOTE The Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~ is permitted to fix typographical errors and make editorial revisions provided that the changes are not substantive (the intent of the content of the document is not affected) and that requirements are not added or removed.

- Verifies that submitted document has been approved for publication.
- ~~Publication of~~ Publishes the final controlled document

8.2 Document Owner

The Document Owner:

- Prepares the document for review, consideration or approval as appropriate to the stage of development.
- Ensures accuracy of the content and prepares the document in a general format before submitting the document for consideration to the Document Approver and Document Control Administrator.
- Confirms that included definitions are not in conflict with, nor duplicated in, the IECEX Guide 01C, Terms and Definitions document.
- Helps resolve issues and comments raised during the document review process and after the publication.
- Reviews the document within the prescribed review cycle. The purpose of the review is for members to consider (by correspondence or at a meeting of the relevant Committee) the currency and validity of the content of the publication and either confirm it as appropriate OR identify aspects where improvement is needed. This may be initiated by the Document Owner listing the document in a meeting agenda for members to consider beforehand. Proposals for improvement shall then be considered by the publication's assigned Document Owner.

NOTE Editorial revisions without a corresponding review of the content do not meet the requirement for the five-year review cycle required in Clause 13.

In the case of some IECEX publications (for example, those IECEX Operational Documents that apply to more than one IECEX Scheme) more than one Committee, Working Group or other group may have a need to provide input to their maintenance or revisions – in this case the Document Ownership can be delegated in full or in terms of Sections or Clauses of the publication to another group. The details of Document Owner(s) and any delegations made by the nominated Document Owner are specified in Annexes A, B and C of this Operational Document. Irrespective of any delegation, the nominated Document Owner shall supervise the delegate's work and ensure the complete all Document Owner tasks as assigned above.

IECEX publications should include details of the Document Owner and these can be added at the next revision of publications where such details are not currently included.

8.3 Document Approver

The Document Approver ensures that each document submitted for review or consideration is acted upon in due time and that notification is provided to the document owner upon approval or rejection of the submitted document. The processes employed by the Document Approver will be determined by the policies and procedures of their respective Committee or Working Group and these may be defined in other IECEX Publications (for example, IECEX OD 035)

9. Document Format

- All documents must be prepared and submitted to the Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~ by the Document Owner in Microsoft Word using .docx format.

- Proposed changes to existing publications shall be submitted using the “Track Changes” feature of Microsoft Word.
- IECEx publications provided to users for completion by editing ~~may~~ should be published in Microsoft Word using .docx format.
- Completed forms, templates and documents for voting when circulated to IECEx Member Bodies shall be issued in PDF format.
- All other publications shall be published in PDF format.
- The Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~ shall conduct an editorial review and correction, where necessary, of format, font, punctuation and spelling prior to publication.
- Should additional changes be considered substantive, affecting the intent of the content of the document, or if such change would add or remove requirements, the Document Control Administrator shall return the proposed document to the Document Owner for further consideration.

10. Document Identity Control

- The Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~ will assign a unique Document Number to each new document or publication in accordance with Annex A prior to publication. Ideally a unique Document Number will be assigned in the early stages of development and a document proposer may request the assignment of a Document Number from the Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~.
- This IECEx Operational Document shall be regularly updated to include details of any new documents or publications.

11. Document Version Control

- Original publications shall be designated as Edition 1.0
- Amendments that provide additional guidance, change only minor parts of the document, or add content to existing requirements shall be designated with as Edition #.1 following by Edition #.2 for any subsequent amendments to the same Edition etc.
- The revision of a publication that adds new requirements or represents major changes shall be designated as a new Edition #.0

12. Document Accessibility

- Level I controlled documents and their most recent “red-line version” shall be electronically accessible to all relevant parties via the IECEx website.
- For all other controlled documents, the latest version shall be electronically accessible to all relevant parties via the IECEx website.
- IECEx Publications that contain commercially sensitive content or that are “committee-in-confidence” may be password protected and hence are only accessible to parties that have been provided with the relevant password. The need for a password will be evident when an attempt to open the link to a publication that is displayed on www.iecex.com.

13. Document Maintenance

- For Level I controlled documents shall be subject to periodic review on a maximum five-year cycle by the Document Owner and be either confirmed as still relevant OR plans for revision shall be established. If the document has been reviewed prior to the assigned review date, together with or independent of any modifications, the cycle may be reset at the discretion of the Document Owner.
- The ExMC shall require each Committee and ExMC WG to report during the annual ExMC meeting on the status of their relevant controlled documents.

- If a new WG is established, this document should be updated in a timely manner.
- The Document Control Administrator ~~Secretariat~~ shall publish all Level I publications on the IECEX Website and provide details of:
 - Document number
 - Document name or title
 - Edition
 - Publication date/ effective date
 - Owner
 - Review date

14. Proposals for new IECEX documents and amendments to existing documents

The process for stakeholders to propose:

- a) a new IECEX document or publication, or
- b) amendments to existing IECEX documents or publications

is outlined in the following Figure 1:

15. Document Archiving

Unless otherwise stated, IECEX publications require implementation from the date of publication and a new Edition or version supersedes all previous Editions or versions. In order to prevent inadvertent use, superseded Editions and versions are withdrawn from normal access at www.iecex.com. Upon withdrawal, these documents are archived in either the Archives section of www.iecex.com, ~~or on the IECEX server depending on the future needs for bodies to access these documents.~~

The IECEX Secretariat is responsible for archiving controlled documents that have been withdrawn. Requests for a copy of an archived controlled document that is not available in the Archives section of www.iecex.com may be submitted to the IECEX Secretariat.

16. Document Retention

Controlled Documents that have been withdrawn or superseded shall be permanently stored and maintained in electronic format (both PDF and MS Word using .docx format) by the Document Control Administrator ~~IECEX Secretariat~~ and remain available for a minimum of ten (10) years.
